

FIXED FEES FOR NOTARY SERVICES

Clients require the services of a notary for a range of reasons including applications for visas, authentication of Australian education documents when applying for employment overseas, witnessing affidavits and other documents for use in other jurisdictions, and powers of attorney for use in other countries.

In some cases, notarisation of a document is sufficient for the purposes of the receiving country. In many cases however, the authenticity of the signature and seal of the notary needs to be authenticated by the Department of Foreign Affairs and Trade. This is obtained by either an Apostille (if the relevant country is a party to the Hague Apostille Convention) or by authentication (where the country is not a party to that convention). In the latter case a further legalisation by the Embassy of the receiving country will also be required.

Paula Roberts has been appointed as a Notary Public by the Supreme Court of NSW and has been practising as a notary for more than six years. She is available to assist clients with their notarial requirements.

Unless your requirements are unusually complex, we charge fixed fees for our notarial services in line with the fees recommended by the Society of Notaries NSW.
